

Teaching Family Homes of Upper Michigan

July 22, 2008

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT

Kristina Balzarini
1000 Silver Creek Road
Marquette
906-249-5437

Kristina.Balzarini@teachingfamilyhomes.com

Art in the Woods- Youth Art/Talent Fair

Marquette, MI – Teaching Family Homes of Upper Michigan will be hosting Art in the Woods, a Youth Art/Talent Fair, September 20, 2008 from 10am-3pm at their campus on Silver Creek Road in Harvey. Area youth will have the opportunity to perform or display their artistic abilities and also have their art/craft items to sell to the public.

There is no registration fee for a youth or youth group wanting to secure a booth. Space for performing music is also available. There will be a $25.00 charge for adults or businesses to secure a booth space.

The mission of Teaching-Family Homes is to provide ethical, cost-effective care to children, families, and individuals in need of services. Our goal as an agency is to facilitate self-sufficiency, skill development, and interpersonal relationships through building upon and reinforcing individual strengths and attributes. Teaching Family Homes is an affiliate of Father Flanigan's Girls and Boys Town and utilizes the research-based Teaching Family Model in many program components. Group homes, foster care and counseling services are nationally accredited by the Commission on Accreditation of Rehabilitation Facilities (CARF).

For registration details or sponsorship information, please contact Kristina Balzarini at 906-249-5437 or visit our web site at www.teachingfamilyhomes.org.

###